SECTION II

The College has a system of annual comprehensive fees which applies to all categories of students. Bills will be due for the first term in early August and early January for the second term. Checks should be made payable to Randolph-Macon College and mailed to the Treasurer's Office. The comprehensive fees for each term are due before the beginning of each term on the dates indicated. Fees for fall include: 1) the comprehensive mandatory fee, 2) the $100 matriculation fee and the $300 contingency deposit for new students, 3) the $5 Residence Hall Association fee, 4) a $150 automobile registration fee, which can be deducted if you will not have a car on campus. Please note other fees not shown here may also apply; please see the Business Office website for a complete list of fees and charges: www.rmc.edu.
